*When students are ruled academically ineligible they are encouraged to continue practicing, but they are not allowed to participate in games until the next grade reporting period shows them as eligible.

 Summer school does not assist in bringing up the GPA from semester #2 grades. Students who are ineligible at the end of the second semester will remain so until the first grade check of the following school year, regardless of what classes they made up over the summer. Grade Check #1 is usually about 26 to 30 instructional days into the first semester.
